

FINANCIAL FOUNDATIONS

A PERSONAL FINANCIAL LITERACY TRAINING FOR NEW MEXICO EDUCATORS

ENHANCE YOUR EARNING CAPACITY

- ✓ Participate in a free Personal Financial Literacy program on June 8, 2018, sponsored by Fidelity Investments and the Council for Economic Education.
- ✓ This professional development workshop will focus on teachers as adult learners to better prepare them to teach financial literacy to students in grades K-12 and will cover key concepts, strategies, and resources.
- ✓ Attendees will assess how a career plan impacts earning power and lifestyle and will discuss the value of employee benefits and how withholding and payroll deductions impact income tax and cash flow. Other topics will include the Rule of 72, planning for retirement, building endurance and making adjustments during changing stages of life and career, and building savings.
- ✓ A limited number of partial scholarships are available to help reimburse educators for some travel costs to attend. Participants traveling more than 60 miles are eligible to apply. Group travel and car pooling are encouraged. Group hotel rate details provided on registration page.
- ✓ To apply for the travel scholarship, email your name, school, contact information, number traveling, the amount requested, and a short explanation of how the funds will be used to caroleglade@gmail.com no later than May 15. Funds are limited and will be awarded on a first-come basis.

The program utilizes the JumpStart Teacher Training Alliance curriculum presented by Fidelity professionals. An interactive session on pedagogy, strategies, and resources will be led by Carole Glade, a financial literacy educator with over 30 years experience. The JumpStart Teacher Training Alliance (JSTTA) is a collaborative endeavor designed to standardize teacher training in personal finance through a shared model which will ensure consistency and rigor in teacher training programs across the country. The JSTTA is administered by the JumpStart Coalition on behalf of its partners and affiliates.
